

1622 G Street
Rio Linda, CA 95673
(916) 991-3634
bmoon@teachertech.us

Bruce Moon

Experience

January 2004-present Folsom-Cordova Adult School, FCUSD Rancho Cordova, CA

ESL Teacher

- Teach daily beginning level class of students from Mexico, Cambodia, and the Ukraine

September 2003-present Old Marshall School, SCUSD Sacramento, CA

ESL Teacher

- Teach multilevel CBET class of mostly Korean speakers
- Served on district "Program of Excellence" curriculum committee, working to align program with model program standards
- Have taught other summer and regular year classes

August 2002-June 2003 Natomas Charter School Sacramento, CA

Educational Advisor

- Advised and taught 25 high school students in an independent study program
- Adapted course materials for use in independent study curriculum
- Regular contact include e-mail, I-messaging, and weekly face-to-face meetings with students
- Record keeping using web-based tools
- Tutored students one-on-one in core subjects, as well as use of technology tools such as iMovie, Adobe Photoshop Elements, and Dreamweaver

July 2000-June 2002 Natomas Charter School Sacramento, CA

Special Projects Coordinator

- Coordinated and wrote Digital High School grant for $114,000
- Wrote I.B.M. grant for eight computers
- Taught and advised 20 independent study students in all subjects
- Assisted in technology and curriculum planning and expenditures
- Developed and maintained program website

1997-2000 Natomas Charter School Sacramento, CA

Educational Coordinator

- Primary planner and co-developer of the Individualized Learning Program, an independent study program, currently serving over 120 students
- Developed first website for program
- Solicited the donation of over 40 P.C. systems from government agencies, creating a lending program for students without home computers
- Taught and advised 25-50 mostly high school, with some K-8, independent study and homeschooling students and their families
-

1996-1997 Grant Unified School District Sacramento, CA

Adult School instructor

- Taught day and evening school students in G.E.D. and high school completion courses
- Advised students and obtained appropriate curriculum

1984-1996 Grant Unified School District Sacramento, CA

Teacher

- Taught comprehensive classroom English for five years and participated as a cadre member in the California Literature Project
- Read California Assessment Project English composition essays and high school proficiency exam
- Instructed ill and disabled grade 7-12 students in their homes as a home and hospital instructor for four years

Education

1/2003- present California State University Sacramento, CA

- Master's in Educational Technology, in progress
- This program (imet.csus.edu) provides participants tools and knowledge to implement technology in the classroom and the workplace education. Online experiences form the core of the instructional experience. I will meet CTAP requirements for a trainer upon completion of the program.

2001-2002 California State University Sacramento, CA

- PT3 participant (program for training new and mentor teachers in the use of technology)
-
- 2001 Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo (extension) Sacramento, CA
- Intel Teach to the Future program through the Natomas Unified School District. Trained in integrating technology into the classroom

1999 California State University Sacramento, CA

- M.A. in English/ Teaching Speakers of Other Languages

1983 California State University Sacramento, CA

- Multiple subjects credential program

1977 Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary Mill Valley, CA

- M.Div. in Religious Education

1971 Portland State University Portland, OR

- B.S. in Anthropology
-

Teaching Credentials

California Clear Multiple Subjects and Single Subject in English and Social Science

C.L.A.D. certification

Professional Affiliation and Development

TESOL and CATESOL member

Subscribe to and participate in several listservs, including TESL-L, Becoming a Webhead, and EdTech